Garden Center of America

Painesville, Ohio

Painesville, Ohio, located 30 miles due east of Cleveland and one mile from Lake Erie, has long been noted as the original "Garden Spot of America."

This completely unexaggerated recommendation was not a chamber of commerce banner but rather an award of national fame, earned by the local nurseries and flower experts.

Not only fruit trees and shrubs but also roses, peonies and scores of other flowers, grow prosperously in the select soil of the surrounding countryside.

A total of 40 important nurseries can be counted within a few miles of the downtown area. These in turn employ a large percentage of the working potential of the territory.

and . . . in this Garden Center . . .

Five hundred students make up the roll of Painesville Harvey High School in 1950-51. One hundred eighty-three are in the graduating senior class.

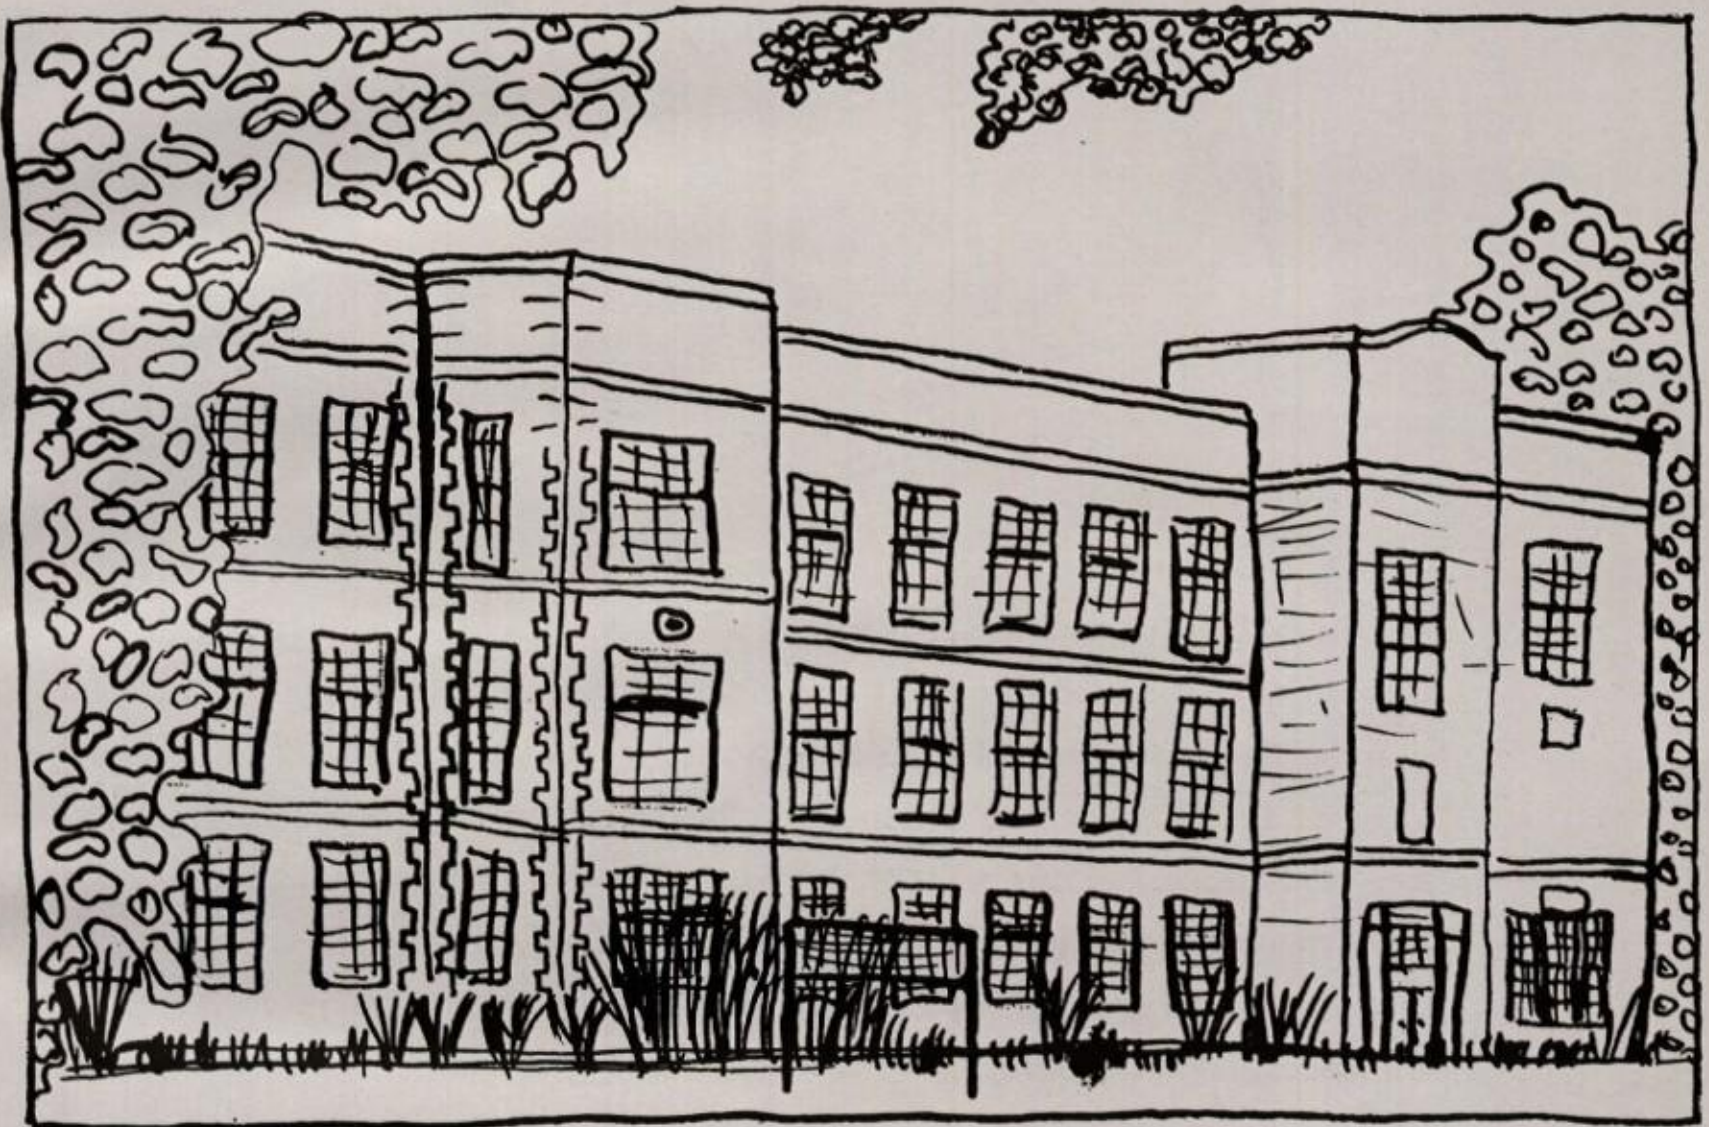

Harvey stands as a proud expanding example of American democratic education. The faculty, as a whole very young and vigorous but with the right temper of age mixed in, is a perfect blend.

Every modern improvement has or is being realized. Driver Education, Ohio's third best music department, Visual Education, four varsity athletics and uncounted intramural activities for both boys and girls, superior Student Publications, dramatics, clubs, boards and the utmost in democratic student government are all offered.

These and many other phases of high school life at Harvey make every one of those 183 seniors look back with pride and a bit of sadness.

The years to come, clouded or bright, shall continue to produce classes of strong willed, dependable, deep thinking citizens from our alma mater.

DEDICATION

TO YOU, MISS BROOKS

For your invaluable aid and cooperation, we are dedicating our ANVIL. In addition to your regular duties of teaching Literature, Advanced Composition, and Speech, you have helped Harvey become more advanced in dramatics by being the advisor of Le Masque and Thespians. You've been the inspiration and director of our all-school plays. Many a time you have made it possible for a group to attend a play in Cleveland and various other field trips. May your ensuing years give you the pleasure that your past three years have given us, here at Harvey.

Miss Phyllis Brooks

School Board

Standing — Wallace Green, Robert Oldfather, Glenn Esch, clerk.

Six prominent men and their popular lady president composed the 1951 Painesville City Board of Education.

This group saw to the beginning and completion of the building of the ultramodern education plant shown in architect sketch on the opposite page.

After years of preparation and ground work the board can now look back on a job done well to their own high standards.

Construction

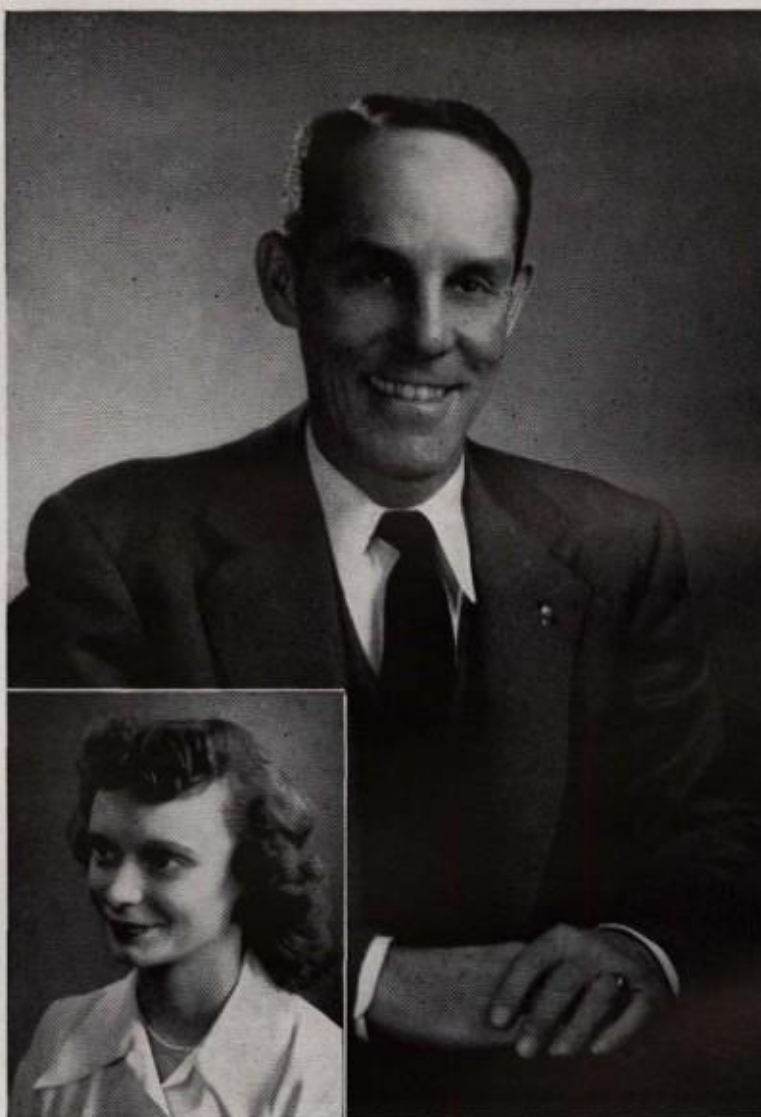

ADMINISTRATION

The teachers and administrators of any high school have a serious job staked out for them every year. In September a large group of students, some eager for learning, and others not so eager, come as strangers into their hands for the beginning of their secondary education.

These people have as their life's work the challenging task of molding those students into grown people, with grown up thoughts, ready for anything.

After the several high school years the teachers have gotten to know their pupils well and have influenced their lives more than even they realize.

Superintendent

ELAINE CARROLL
Secretary

Faculty

Mr. John Corwin, as principal, directed the faculty for 1951. His staff was made up of 30 full and part time teachers.

Every department, mathematics, sciences, business, history and social studies, domestic arts and physical education all rounded out the schedule of every student.

This balanced education has been proven essential for everyone if he should go to college or not.

Here are the people who make that education:

Class History

From the very start everyone knew that we seniors would be a class with a difference. When we struck out on our own in our very first year here at Harvey and had a "Sophomore Sock Hop",—practically a get-together (just like the seniors), everybody saw we'd have plenty of initiative.

We kept it up junior year too, selling magazine subscriptions to bail out the sinking fund for the big Junior-Senior Prom that lay ahead. We'll all remember our first Prom,—moon, Manakiki, and all.

But that isn't all we did as juniors. Our class was well represented on both the football and basketball teams, and best of all, we won the first prize in the all-school Stunt Night with our wonderful, corny skit.

And then, all of a sudden we were seniors, with only one more year to go.

We've come a long way since we were sophomores, and sometimes it's seemed as if there's been an awful lot to learn,—especially when the homework piled up toward the end of the year, with all of us working hard on commencement committees.

This year hasn't been just work for us, though. None of us will forget the winter Homecoming, all the better for its long wait; or "January Thaw", the Le Masque club's zany play; or all the other funny wonderful things that made "us seniors" The Seniors of Harvey High.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Ably serving the student body this year, 1950-51, in the executive positions of our student government are Ann Willis, president, Canby Dautel, vice-president, and Marlene Hallock, secretary. The duties required in these positions are endless throughout the year, and the occupants deserve much credit.

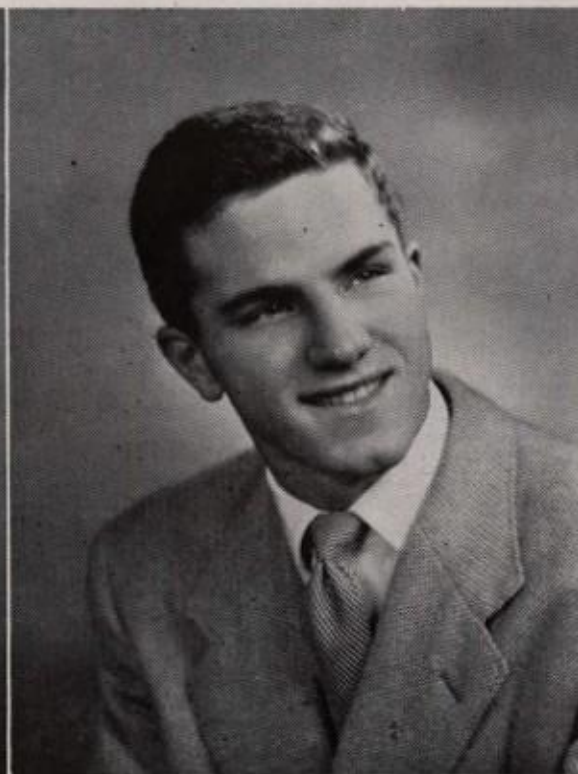

The legislative branch of our student government here at Harvey is the Student Council. The Council's job is to make the governing laws of the school. The president of the Student Council this year is Joe Marano. The faculty advisor to this hard-working group is Mr. Layton Pollock.

Last, but certainly not least, is the Student Court, the judicial branch of our government. It sees that justice reigns. The Chief Justice this year is Tom Guerra. Mr. Dale Smith is the faculty advisor to the group.

The students of Harvey High School are very proud of their student government. It has been functioning here since 1924, when one honor study hall was established. Soon afterward honor study halls were on the increase. Then, some time later, student body officials were elected. Following this came the Student Council and Student Court, in operation since 1935.

Season's Record

HARVEY TRIUMPHS OVER WOOSTER 7-6

Harvey opened their season with a 7-6 win over Wooster as quarterback Ralph Gage passed to Ted Beckwith for a touchdown on the last play of the first half. The Raiders snapped Wooster's 13 game win streak.

RAIDERS DOWNED BY CONNEAUT

The Raiders dropped their first league contest to Conneaut, 12-0. Nothing seemed to click except the running of the injured Paul Garland.

RAIDERS BEAT BEDFORD

With Bob Werner leading the way with 2 touchdowns, the Red Raiders went wild in the third period at Bedford. In the last quarter Palsse went 24 yards for Harvey to make the score 19-6.

SKIPPERS TOP HARVEY

The strong Skippers of Fairport continued their unbeaten string of games by downing Harvey 28-0 on the Raider field. The Skippers were led by ace quarterback Allen O'Janpa, and Phil Pillar's two touchdowns.

HARBOR FORFEITS TO RAIDERS

Harvey scored its first victory in the Lake Shore League this season when Ashtabula Harbor forfeited its game scheduled for October 12, because of injuries.

Homecoming

Seated — Mary Ann Arp, Ann Willis—Queen, Marlene Hallock.
Row Two — Joan Kish, Theresa Meo, Ruth Rigby, Estelle Gage.

Couples forgot their worries as they danced under the blue and silver streamers to the melodies of Bud Marsh's orchestra. All this and an attractively decorated throne provided the setting for Harvey's outstanding social event, which was this year sponsored by the Scarlet Torch, Key Club, and Social Board.

The gold and white programs and pressed flowers we find in our memory books will always recall fond memories of our "extra-special" 1950 Homecoming.

BASKETBALL

Reviewing the results of a successful season, we find that the Raiders finished with a 12-6 record, and placed four members on the second All-Lake Shore League team. The Raiders lost their initial contest in the sectional tournament to Cleveland Central 44-42 in the last 40 seconds.

THE CITY DELIVERY
"MAY WE SERVE YOU"

HORSE CABBIE AND FRIEND AT CENTRAL PARK, N. Y., PHOTOGRAPHED BY VICTOR KEPPLER

BEHIND SUCH FAITH IN THE COMMONPLACE

The sparkling, clean water bubbling in the heart of bustling cities is far more pure than the rivers and lakes from which we take it. Daily we trust it with our health, our life in fact. Only thirty years ago, city water was a conveyor of some of the most epidemic diseases.

The rescue of water from pollution caused by dense settlements and widespread industry came when a few venturesome city fathers introduced liquid chlorine into drinking water. Chlorine sterilized so well and so cheaply that today the practice is commonplace.

Many cities are now furnishing water softened by soda ash. Some cities treat their water with silicate of soda and other chemicals to achieve sparkling clarity, seldom seen in nature. These three chemicals are produced for water treatment in great quantities by the twelve plants of DIAMOND ALKALI from coast to coast, border to border.
